

GEN. ASSEMBLY PASSES ON NEW SALARY SCALE

Minimum For Married Ministers
$1,200 And Manse—$1,150 For Bachelor Pastors.

(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire)
MONTREAL, June 7.—The minimum salaries of Presbyterian ministers were, by unanimous action of the general assembly, fixed at $1,200 a year and manse for married, and at $1,150 a year for bachelor pastors, the regulation to become effective on January 1 next, on the same date that the minimum for married ordained missionaries will become $1,000 and house, and $950 for ordained single men.

Old Ontario
To get a place on the fund all charges in Old Ontario will have to contribute at least $800 and the manse, the minimum at least $600 a year and a house where required. This increases the scale in the east to a level with the minimum formerly established in the west, in line with the changes which had developed in the cost of living. Rev. Mr. Edmondson, who fathered this portion of the home mission report, added and explained department of labor statistics on the cost of living.

Increase Voted
In supporting the recommendation for increase of the minimum salary, the Rev. Mr. Edmondson sketched the history of increases as authorized by a general assembly, dealing with the subject in detail and at times in a humorous vein. Dr. Alex. McGillivray, Toronto, moved that the increase be voted. Mr. J. K. Macdonald, Toronto, seconded the motion, saying it was an appeal for simple justice. Rev. R. T. Young, Tisdale, Sask., and Mr. John Fleming, Winnipeg, spoke to the motion.

When the Rev. Mr. Edmondson proposed that the Ruthenian and other non-English speaking churches should not be placed in a separate class but treated in payment and in every other way as others in the church, this was moved by the Rev. E. Leslie Pidgeon, seconded by the Rev. Dr. Baird, the late moderator, and passed unanimously.

Welding Nationalities
During consideration of the home mission service many speakers dealt with the welding of the various nationalities into one nation. Commissioners from English-speaking, Jewish, French and Ruthenian centres spoke. Rev. Dr. Pidgeon, especially, dwelt on the attitude in the provinces of Quebec and Ontario in judging the people of the other provinces. "I am a native of Quebec and in Ontario I want to be judged as a native of Ontario," he said, "I want to be judged in Ontario by the utterance of its extremists, and Ontario being judged by its extremists. We have a right to differ and express those differences with the freedom of speech that has always been the privilege of a land like ours. We can respect towards one another and still find, by means of discussion, the common way in which to live."

Other speakers during the evening were the Rev. C. H. Avesett, Ottawa; the Rev. S. B. Rohold, Toronto; the Rev. H. Wilkins, Vermilion, Ala.; the Rev. M. F. Munro, professor of the college at Saskatoon; the Rev. J. S. Henderson, British Columbia.

Confederation Thanksgiving
After the report of the board of finance was presented today by Dr. Drummond, the proposition in it that on July 1 next all Presbyterian churches in Canada shall celebrate the jubilee of confederation by Thanksgiving services was supported by Justice Farrell, of Saskatchewan, and the Rev. Dr. McKay, Toronto. These gave warm support to the idea of the board that all collections should be devoted to the $55,000 deficit for all the mission schemes of the church. The motion carried unanimously.

Deficit Reduced
Rev. Dr. C. P. Cadden, convener, who presented the home mission report, pointed out that the deficit of $157,000 with which they started the year had been reduced to $30,000, which was a record in a war year. Without hurrying regular subscriptions and with extraordinary liberality $126,000 had been raised. A regrettable feature in the reduction of the deficit was the limitation of the work. There were 167,000 million stations unoccupied. Thirty-seven got occasional supplies, but 130 million fields were not being worked. Two hundred and twenty-nine student missionaries had gone to the front and forty ordained missionaries and catechists.

The mission work maintained 768 home mission fields and 245 augmented charges. There was no overlapping with the Congregational and Methodist churches.

Decision Of The National Council of Women After Animated

(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire)
WINNIPEG, June 7.—"I am in favor of conscription of men, women and money. I am in favor of the strongest measures to win the war, but I am not in favor of compulsory military training at the school," stated Professor Carrie Derick of Montreal at the morning session of the National Council of Women, following on an hour's strenuous debate on a resolution introduced by Mrs. H. C. Hamilton, Vancouver, on behalf of the Victoria local council, asking the federal government to provide military and naval training for every boy in Canada fit to receive it in order to fit him for the defense of his country.

The following are the recommendations as finally adopted:
"That physical training under qualified educationists be given to both boys and girls in all schools.
"That during the period of the war that military drill be given to all youths, whether students or wage earners, between the ages of 18 and 20 years.
"That the question of permanent changes in our educational system involving compulsory military training be laid on the table until after peace is established, when it will be possible to approach such questions dispassionately and with fuller knowledge of our future needs."

Assembly Cheers News

ENTHUSIASTIC CROWD GETS NEWS OF LIBERAL VICTORY FROM THE BULLETIN OFFICE

Telephone Man, Announcement Boards, Red Hot Extras, and Telephone Tell of Government's Return—Hon. A. G. MacKay Addresses The Throng—Personally He Regrets The Defeat Of T. M. Tweedie In Calgary—What The Various Candidates Have To Say.

A crowd which filled Jasper avenue from curb to curb and extended half a block east and west gathered in front of The Bulletin office last night to hear the election returns. Figures, as fast as they were received by wire, by telephone and in person, were first announced through megaphone and then posted on the bulletin board.

The results from the early city elections indicated that the Edmonton Liberals had been carried by the Conservatives, were something of a surprise to the spirits of the great throng, but when the good news came from the province at large, showing that the Liberal government had been endorsed by a majority so impressive that there was no longer any doubt where the sweep was going to be, enthusiasm knew no bounds.

Liberal Victory Cheered the announcement of the election results after Liberal was greeted with cheers that could have been heard a mile off. The candidates of the various ministers received special recognition when they were named, and when it was announced that the premier had been given a majority, the throng cheered with enthusiasm the upsurge was fairly deafening. There was not the slightest doubt of where the sympathies of the great assembly lay, and of the election with which they hailed the tidings that Alberta stood fast for progress and enlightenment, and repudiated the slanders and misstatements of the opposition.

Mr. Douglas was not so much surprised as he was glad that the Liberal government had been elected. He said he was glad to see the Liberal government elected, and he was glad to see the Liberal government elected, and he was glad to see the Liberal government elected.

MORE EVIDENCE IN BODNER CASE

Defense Present Testimony Showing Several of Accused Not Present in Room

Again evidence was submitted on behalf of the defense to show that J. J. Burns, William B. Channell and John Cornell were not in the room of the Alberta hotel on the afternoon of March 7th, 1917, when the farm and chattels of Peter Bodner, of Lamont, were transferred to John Anderson.

The proceedings on the charges of false pretences against Burns, Channell, Cornell and Fred Schwalbe, in connection with this transfer were further conducted in the police court on Thursday morning, and were adjourned until Monday morning.

Schwalbe was in the witness box all morning. Hon. A. G. MacKay appeared on behalf of Channell in the place of J. G. MacDonald.

Schwalbe testified that Bodner asked him to come up to the room because he wanted "to show him something." When he got to the room the only people there were Anderson, H. White, Terank, Bodner and himself. He said he interpreted part of the transfer papers as they were dictated to him by White. In his evidence he said that $2,800 was paid in cash to Bodner along with the stock certificate. Schwalbe also told of going to the post office with Bodner and securing post office orders to send a bank in the United States. He swore Bodner had them sent under another name. Anderson told Bodner, he testified, that if he (Bodner) was not satisfied with the stock certificate he would give him a farm of forty or eighty acres with a good house on it with $2,000 to boot. He also told of reading a letter brought by Burns from J. A. McCallister. Bodner, he said, tore up the letter. He admitted witnessing some of the papers in relation to the transfer of this property from Anderson to Channell in Hyndman, Milner and Matheson. He explained his presence there by stating he had seen Channell go to the office and wanted him to identify Bodner in the Standard Bank so the latter could obtain a draft certificate. Schwalbe swore positively he did not receive any commission out of the Anderson-Bodner transfer.

Juvenile Court

Before his lordship Bishop Gray three boys were charged with theft. A case of one, it was shown his father was in Saskatchewan and he was left here in care of strangers. This being his fourth appearance in court, his lordship ordered that the boy be sent to the reformatory at Portage La Prairie and that his father be notified. The two other boys were ordered to be sent to the country as soon as school closes.

A charge of theft against other boys was adjourned till next week for further evidence.

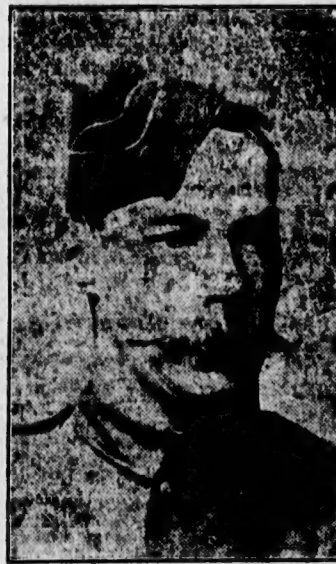

Five boys were charged with breaking into store. Three pleaded guilty. The case was adjourned for further evidence.

The charge against a father who neglected to send his children regularly to school was failed to appear. A warrant of commitment of 16 days was given for a man who refused to pay the $10 imposed by the court under the truancy clause of the School Act.

Before Magistrate E. F. Murphy an inquiry was made into the case of a girl of 15 who came here from the States and who had been living with her uncle and his family, her father and mother being dead. The girl charged her uncle with a grossly indecent act towards her and her aunt with unkind treatment. She was made a ward of the court, and Miss Jackson, senior probation officer, reported that a suitable place had been found for her as a domestic. Her worship in reprimanding the man for his conduct towards his orphan niece said there were words in the dictionary which would describe his conduct, but she could not think of them, but even if she could they would not be fit to use in court.

PREMIER SAID TO FAVOR ELECTION

If Conscription Bill Is Not Speedily Passed May Go To Country.

WINNIPEG, June 7.—A special dispatch to the Winnipeg Telegram from Ottawa says:

"What is going to happen as a result of the failure of coalition is uncertain. This government may go on as it is, passing the conscription bill, a new franchise act, the highways bill, and submitting a measure for the extension of the life of parliament."

"Another result of the refusal of coalition may be an appeal to the country, for unless the conscription bill is passed, Sir Robert is said to favor an election."

PROPOSED MERGER CEMENT COMPANIES

For the purpose of discussing amalgamation between the Edmonton Portland Cement Co. and the old Edmonton Portland Cement Co., with plant at Marlboro, a meeting of those interested is to be held on Friday afternoon at three o'clock in 501 McLeod building.

FISH CANNERIES TO BE LICENSED

New Law Places All In Same Position As Lobster And Salmon.

OTTAWA, June 7.—In the house of commons a bill was introduced by the government for the regulation of the fisheries act. Mr. Hazen explained that at present lobster and salmon canneries only are licensed and the object of the new legislation was to have all fish canneries properly controlled and placed on the same basis. The fee would be nominal. Another provision, he said, applied to all the western provinces. At present it was absolutely obligatory to have irrigation works screened at the outlets in order to prevent fish going upstream and dying. But sometimes irrigation ditches were so located that screens were unnecessary and the new legislation left the order regarding screens to the judgment of the minister.

CONSCRIPTION LEGISLATION IS SCHEDULED

Premier Announces That Measure Will Be Introduced In House Next Monday.

OTTAWA, June 7.—The record crowd of the session thronged the galleries of the commons this afternoon, anticipating a statement to be made by Sir Robert Borden and Sir Wilfrid Laurier with regard to the failure of negotiations to form a coalition government.

So great was the tumult while the people were taking the seats that the preliminary business in the chamber was suspended for a few minutes.

Both leaders were in apparent good spirits. The premier crossed over the floor of the house and had a few minutes conversation with the opposition leader, then returned to his seat.

Finally the speaker cried "Order" and the tumult in the galleries died down. A number of formal questions were answered.

Premier's Announcement.
When the orders of the day were called, Sir Robert Borden announced that "The Military Service Act, 1917, would be introduced on Monday."

Sir Wilfrid Laurier asked when the second reading would be called.

Sir Robert replied that the second reading would be called on Monday, and it was convenient to the opposition. It was his desire, however, that the bill should be passed as rapidly as possible.

Then to the surprise of nearly everybody in the chamber, Sir Robert went out.

No Further Statement.
Sir Wilfrid smiled at the gallant and it suddenly dawned upon everybody acquainted with parliamentary proceedings that no statement would be made in the house today, and that the explanations of the leaders to the present would be confined to the two letters given out this forenoon.

In the galleries the less informed public not familiar with procedure of parliament remained patiently awaiting for the leaders to speak.

CHILDREN ADMIT TERRIBLE CRIME

Confess To Killing Of Father At Brother And Sister's Bidding.

DURANT, Okla., June 7.—The four motherless and now fatherless children of L. L. Wilkerson, a farmer, today told Judge Lewis Pauldin, in county court, how they planned and executed the murder of their father last Thursday night as he lay asleep in the Wilkerson farm home near Bennington.

At the request of the court two of the children re-enacted the tragedy in dramatic fashion. All have been sent to the state school for delinquency.

Benjie, aged 13, the eldest of the four, and Joe, aged 12, gave the court a comprehensive account of the incident. The two younger children, Ruby, 10, and Otto, 8, testified they killed the father at the older children's bidding.

PLEA FOR CHEAP WIRELESS RATE TO OLD COUNTRY

Advocated As Method For Securing Improved Cable Service With Great Britain.

OTTAWA, June 7.—In connection with the consideration of an act to repeal the ocean telegraph act there occurred a short discussion on the question of ocean cable rates in the house of commons. The purpose of the bill is to restore to the Wireless Company, which has gone into liquidation, the sum of $10,000 deposited with the government. Hon. J. D. Hazen explained that the Wireless Company will take over the wireless stations at Newcastle, N. B., and on the northeast coast of Ireland, spend a considerable sum of money on improvements, and continue to operate them.

Cheap Wireless Rates.
Hon. Rodolph Lemieux made a plea for cheap wireless rates in order that the improved cable service between Great Britain and Canada might be maintained. He thought that cheap wireless rates would have a good effect in bringing the regular cable companies to their senses.

W. F. MacLean advocated a government-owned imperial cable service. This, he said, had been recommended in the report of the Dominion Royal Commission, of which Sir George Foster was a member. When the company whose failure was now announced was established four years ago he had predicted that the imperial cable service in the interests of the cable companies.

Under U. S. Control.
It was to the credit of Great Britain, Mr. MacLean said, that practically all the cables which serve the other country are controlled in the United States. The Dominion of Canada could do its share by at once moving to take over the land lines.

Hon. J. D. Hazen said that what was proposed by this bill would not in any way interfere with the question of government ownership of cable lines whenever that might be taken up. Four years ago, when this project was entered into, the imperial government was not prepared to go ahead with an imperial cable service because of the great expense entailed.

Have Dallied With Church Union, He Says
Retiring President Sask. Methodist Conference Advises Against Premature Action.

SASKATOON, June 7.—Rev. Dr. Oliver Darwin, Regina, president, in opening the Saskatchewan Methodist conference today, referred to the subject of church union and said that the Saskatchewan Methodists sympathized very much with the great Presbyterian church and its difficulties in relation to the question. The eyes of the conference were fixed on the assembly at Montreal, he declared.

They made a great mistake in delaying and delaying. They ought to take action and to take it quickly. The Methodist church alone where it always had stood. Ministers and laymen would not identify themselves with premature and ill-advised lines of action, but would communicate with the responsible leaders of the church before local action was taken.

Rev. T. J. Hartley of Indian Head was elected president. Three hundred and fifty clergymen and laymen are present at the conference.

CHEER CONSCRIPTION

TORONTO, June 7.—While the members rose and sang "God Save the King" and cheered and cheered again, the Anglican Synod unanimously endorsed this afternoon a resolution supporting Premier Borden in his announcement that no statement was necessary for the signing of the war. A resolution was also passed that any province that refuses to contribute its proportion of men for national defense should be refused a like proportion of representation in the national government.

Had Awful Attacks of Heart Trouble

FOR 5 OR 6 YEARS

Disease and disorders of the heart and nervous system have become frightfully prevalent of late years.

One can scarcely pick up a paper but he will find recorded instances of sudden deaths through heart failure, or of prominent men and women unable to prosecute their ordinary business or profession on account of a breaking down of the nervous system. We do not desire to unnecessarily alarm anyone, but to sound a word of warning.

When the heart begins to beat irregularly, palpitates and throbs, has shooting pains through it, it is time to stop and think.

To all sufferers from heart and nerve troubles Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills can give prompt and permanent relief.

Mrs. Frank Arsenau, Newcastle, N. B., writes: "I had awful attacks of heart trouble for the past five or six years, and as I had tried many kinds of medicine without getting any better I decided to give Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills a trial, and to my surprise I found ease from the second dose. I continued taking them until I had used six boxes, and now I feel as well as can be."

"At the present time my sister is using them for nervousness and finds great comfort by their use."

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are 50c, or three boxes for $1.25 at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

To the Editor of Woman's Page:

Dear Madam:—Would it be degrading myself in the eyes of a young man if I permitted him to smoke while walking with me on the street? Also, should a man smoke when visiting a girl at her home?

If tickets are given to me, would it be forward to ask a young man who has taken me several times to the theatre to accompany me, giving him the tickets? I do not believe in asking a man to buy tickets, and I have two given me for a concert recently.

THANKFUL.

I do not know what the young man might think, but unless you are walking in the country and are very good friends a gentleman certainly would not think of smoking, and certainly never when in the street with a woman. If you personally are willing to allow smoking in your home and do not mind a man's smoking while he is talking to you it is allowable, but unless a man were very intimate at the house he would scarcely think of asking permission. Of course, circumstances alter these things very greatly. Sometimes a girl likes to smoke herself and asks the man to smoke with her. Strictly speaking, it is not conventional, however.

There is no reason why you should not invite your friend to use the tickets and take you to the concert. I would certainly do so. You are right in not expecting men to spend money on tickets. Of course, there are occasions when it is perfectly all right, but it is not well for girls to ask them to do so.

Oatmeal Bread.

Dear Madam—Can you give me directions for making oatmeal bread?

READER.

One cupful rolled oats, one-half cupful cornmeal, one and a half tea-spoonfuls salt, one tablespoonful shortening, one cupful boiling water, one-half yeast cake, one-half cupful molasses, one-quarter cupful lukewarm water, four cupfuls flour. Mix the oats, cornmeal, salt and shortening, add the boiling water and let stand for an hour. Then add the yeast dissolved in lukewarm water, the molasses and flour. Mix well, cover and let rise until double, beat well, turn into greased pans, let rise again and bake in a moderate oven about fifty minutes.

Curried Chicken.
To the Editor of Woman's Page.
Dear Madam—Please tell me how to make curried chicken in a chafing dish and oblige.

MARTHA T.
The ingredients needed are: One tablespoonful chopped onion, one ounce butter, one tablespoonful flour, one teaspoonful curry powder, one-half teaspoonful salt, one teaspoonful chopped red peppers, one-quarter pound dried cooked chicken, one teaspoonful lemon juice, one-half pint milk. Melt the butter in the chafing dish, stir in the onion, cook until browned, add flour and curry powder, moistened with milk, stir and cook until thick, add the chicken and peppers, place over hot water and cook for five minutes. Season with salt and lemon juice and serve on squares of hot toast.

Utilizing Leftover Corn.
To the Editor of Woman's Page.
Here is a good "disguise" for a half-empty can of corn: Turn the corn into a baking dish, season with salt, pepper, paprika and a taste of mustard. Pour over it a cupful of white sauce and a beaten egg. Bake until a golden brown. Cheese may be sprinkled over the top of the dish if wanted. It makes a pleasing luncheon delicacy.

It was decided to make Thursday afternoon's meeting the last of the season for the Major Pete Anderson chapter, O. D. E., which met at the home of Miss Eleanor Driscoll on Thursday afternoon. Very little business was transacted except that of closing out what was on hand till the meeting in September. Names of a few new members were voted on.

Very successful was the meeting of the Mc-Na-He-Ko-Sis chapter of the O. D. E., on Thursday afternoon in the Macdonald hotel. Although not so well attended as usual much was accomplished. It was decided to get wool from the Red Cross Society to make socks and thirty pairs were voted to be spent on the knitting. Thirty dollars was also voted for the same purpose for the St. John Ambulance. Ten dollars was voted to the military Y. M. C. A. and the members assumed the responsibility of another prisoner of war. It was decided to make this the last meeting for the summer months to resume work in September.

To hold meetings during the holidays and not adjourn was the decision reached on Thursday afternoon by the Lloyd George chapter, O. D. E., which met in the parlors of the Y. W. C. A. A good deal of business was accomplished and seventy-four pairs of socks had been knit during the evening of Tuesday, June 12th. Ten dollars was donated to the Red Cross society to take the place of the sewing for the summer and after the business on hand was closed out for the season the members decided to disband until September.

There was a splendid attendance at the Col. Griesbach chapter meeting on Thursday afternoon. The chapter met at the South Side Military hospital of which Miss Sanders is the matron, and also a member of the chapter. Mrs. Ewing who organized the chapter, was present and after the regular business was disposed of the members went all through the hospital, visiting the soldiers. It is not the wish of the chapter to disband for the summer but the meetings will continue as usual.

The first entertainment at the new Edmonton military convalescent home (Alberta College South) will be given on the evening of Tuesday, June 12th. An extremely attractive program will be given by Miss Ella Taylor, E. C. Davis, Tom Dalkin, in "A Maker of Dreams," Miss Helen Gorman's troupe in "After the Honeymoon," Eloise and Cecil Martin and the Rotary Club quartette.

LOSSES FROM SUBS SHOW A DECREASE
During Last Week 2693 Vessels Arrived at British Ports—2642 Left.

LONDON, June 6.—The weekly report of the British admiralty concerning British shipping losses by mines or submarines says that fifteen vessels of 1,600 tons and over and three vessels under 1,600 tons, and five fishing vessels were sunk last week. Summary of arrivals numbered 2,693, sailings, 2,642.

British merchant ships sunk by mine or submarine of over 1,600 tons, including one previously sunk, 15; under 1,600 tons, 3; British fishing vessels, 5.

The report compared with that of the previous week shows a decrease of three vessels of 1,600 tons and over sunk, but an increase of two in the category of less than 1,600 tons. The previous week's report announced the sinking of 18 vessels of 1,600 tons and over and of one vessel of less than 1,600 tons. The new report shows an increase of three in the number of fishing vessels sunk—five, against two the previous week.

THE SOLDIER'S KISS.

Only a dying horse! Pull off the gear, And slip the needless bit from frothing jaws. Drag it aside there, leave the roadway clear— The battery thunders on with scarce a pause.

Prono by the shell-swept highway there it lies With quivering limbs, as fast the life tide falls. Dark films are chasing o'er the faithful eyes That mutely plead for and where none avails.

Onward the battery rolls, but one there speeds, Headless of comrade's voice or bursting shell. Back to a wounded friend who lonely bleeds Beside the stony highway where it fell.

Only a dying horse! He swiftly kneels, Lifts the limp head and hears the shivering sigh. Kisses his friend's white down his cheek there steals Sweet pity's tear: "Good-bye, old man, good-bye."

No honors wait him, medal, badge or star, Though scarce could war a kinder deed unfold: He bears within his breast, more precious far Beyond the gift of kings, a heart of gold.

SHELLS LIFEBOATS THEN DISAPPEARS
German Sub is Scaored Away By American Destroyer Off Ireland

An Atlantic Port, June 7.—An American destroyer, on patrol off the coast of Ireland, recently came upon a German submarine shelling the lifeboats of a ship it had sunk, according to survivors of the submarine vessels reaching here today aboard an American liner. The submarine disappeared before the destroyer could get a shot at her and the American war vessel then rescued 20 survivors of two ships that had been sent down within sight of each other, taking them to a British port.
The Lynton was sent down first with no loss of life. Immediately after the Lynton arriving here said the submarine shelled the lifeboats of the Lynton, killing two persons and wounding seven, until the American destroyer came up, when the Germans submerged.

AUSTRIANS MAKE SUPREME EFFORT TO RETREVEVE LOST FORTUNES

Although Losses Against Italians 85,000, Austrians Come Back With Frenzied Gallantry—Assaults, However, Fail.

With the Italians on the Carso, June 5, via London, June 7.—The Austrians, beaten everywhere, with losses standing at a conservative estimate of 85,000, have come back at us with a despairing and frenzied gallantry, and they are fighting so much better than during the offensive that overcrowded the prisoners camp that one has the impression that the uncomfortable fact of defeat and disgrace has taken this length of time to filter through General Boroevich's skull to his brain.
Udine, June 6, via Paris, June 7.—The modification of the line in the whole Carso front shows that the enemy command, after repeated attacks in the Vodice zone, thought it necessary to make a supreme effort on his left wing, where every Italian gain constitutes a double threat on Ljubich and Trieste. Gen. Boroevich's assaults failed entirely before the determined resistance of the Italian troops, who have made a further advance between Castagnavizza and Volcizza, the tract dominating the Brestovizza road, threatening the Hermada stronghold.
The modification of the line in the centre, south of Jamiano, is due to the fact that the Austrian artillery on Hermada could still sweep the front of new Italian positions. The whole Carso front is practically unchanged and the Austrian positions are still closely pressed and menaced by gains made by the Italians in their last advance.
The capture of the Carso, June 7.—The capture of more than 10,000 Italians in three days is claimed in the Austrian official statement issued on Wednesday. The statement says:
"According to preliminary reports the prisoners in the last three days have been increased to 256 officers, including four staff officers, and 10,000 men. Some Italian regiments have been captured in the Carso, and nearly the whole of their effectives. For instance, the 86th regiment with 1,235 men, and the 71st with 1,821 men. The brigades of Verona, Syracuse, Fuglia and Ancona, in whose ranks those units fought, were annihilated. In a tunnel near San Giovanni a large field hospital was captured. The whole battlefield is covered with Italian corpses."

Gas In The Stomach Is Dangerous
Physicians Recommend the Use of Magnesia

Sufferers from indigestion or dyspepsia, who combine the presence of wind in the stomach invariably indicate that the stomach is troubled by excessive acidity.
The acid causes the food to ferment and the fermenting food in turn gives rise to noxious gases which distend the stomach, hamper the normal functions of vital internal organs, cause acute headaches, interfere with the action of the heart, and charge the blood stream with deadly poisons, which in time must ruin the health. Physicians say that to quickly dispel a dangerous quantity of gas, a powerful purgative should be taken, and to stop the food fermentation which creates the gas, the acid in the stomach must be neutralized. For this purpose there is nothing quite so good as a teaspoonful of pure bisulphate of magnesia taken in a little water immediately after meals. This immediately neutralizes the acid thus stopping the fermentation, and the formation of gas, and enables the inflamed, distended stomach to proceed with its work under natural conditions. Bisulphate of magnesia is obtainable in powder or tablet form from any druggist; but as there are many different forms of magnesia it is important that the bisulphate, which the physicians prescribe, should be distinctly asked for.

FRIDAY, JUNE 8, 1917.

PROVINCE APPROVES; EDMONTON DISAPPROVES.

ough the returns are incommensurate beyond a doubt the electors of the Province have very emphatically disapproved the Sifton government and elected them by Mr. Michener and his associates.

The reason for the refusal is not open to question, and because the solid sense of the electors. The campaign failed to give any reason to suppose we would get from Mr. Michener and his friends as good government as we have got from the Sifton government in the past.

Government in the past may therefore expect to get them in the future. On the other hand, it made clear that the situation had little or nothing to do with the change of government.

that a change would be made known to the unknown, therefore for the worse. It is a principle in politics to overthrow a Government but being sure of getting a one; and on that principle we turned out a pronouncedly excessive Government and substituted a cabinet of men who not even able to say what they thought they would do if put to power would have been obnoxious to a public misnomer.

all places in the Province is important to Edmonton the Government should be elected. The future of Edmonton in the great northland. If vacant areas are filled with farms under conditions favorable to successful farming Edmonton will prosper from the business development thus produced; there can be no expectation of a city "coming back" save in proportion as, that is, and in proportion as, that is. But the settlement of the land cannot go on unless any construction goes on, and as he has indicated the future of Mr. Michener to power mean the stoppage of rail-construction in the north.

The building of rail in the north was one of the most determined effort was made to beat government, and the endorsement of the Government by the electors of the Province is a clear definite expression of approval that policy, and a warrant of continuance.

renewed curiosity, the city thus stands to benefit by all other points from the assurance of the Government in returned a solid delegation position members—a loss to government of one supporter in Legislature. Obviously is a reason. When men like Henry, R. B. Douglas and Duncan cannot get elected policy in which the whole of the city is involved, that of enough that the public has been strongly biased at the Government. And is no mystery about the of the bias. Throughout campaign an insistent appeal made, particularly to the voters, on the ground that government must be corrupt.

the Stanley charges had been investigated. To suppose the appeal was not materially would be to deny the self-interest.

to the suspicion thus kind against the Government a campaign of the villainous and contemptible representation ever attempted city. Unfortunately it succeeded; and has put the electors of the city in the position of having repudiated the policy of northern settlement and development upon which the whole future of the community depends.

REVELATIONS.
It takes the rookback to show what a party really stands for. Who, for instance, would have believed that the Opposition candidates in Edmonton would stand sponsor for such a Hun-like piece of misrepresentation as that circular letter to the soldiers' wives?

A WHITE-WASHING COMMISSION.
Hon. Robert Rogers has voluntarily relinquished his portfolio in the Dominion Government while a Royal Commission appointed at his suggestion investigates whether a judge also appointed on his nomination found in accord with the facts when he convicted Mr. Rogers of having entered a criminal conspiracy to rob the people of Manitoba.

It is something unusual, if not new, in Canada for a Dominion Government to appoint a Royal Commission to investigate the finding of a Royal Commission appointed by a Provincial Government to inquire by whom and what methods Provincial funds were made away with.

The investigation of Judge Galt is the condition upon which Mr. Rogers for the time steps out of the Dominion Government, and the means by which he hopes to be re-established in public confidence and thereby enabled to resume his direction of the Dominion Department of Public Works.

The public are therefore entitled to suppose that the astute Minister of Elections has taken due precaution that the commission to investigate Judge Galt is composed of men who can be relied upon to wield the whitewash brush over the record of Mr. Rogers, even though in so doing they impugn the motives of another judge and aid Mr. Rogers' propaganda to bring contempt upon the judiciary of the country.

Tariff and the People's Purse.
From Montreal Herald.
Apropos of the Hon. Mr. Oliver's proposal for a general lowering of the tariff it is interesting to recall that Mr. Alphonse Verville, M.P. for Montserrat, estimates that the present system of raising revenue by tariff so raises the general price of goods, both domestic and imported, that for every 20 cents secured by the Government an indirect tax of $1.00 is levied on the Canadian people.

THE SOLDIER'S MEMORY.
William Winter.
Forever in the soldier's thought
The soldier's life returns—
Or where the trampled fields are fought
Or where the camp-fire burns.
For him the pomp of morning brings
A thrill none else can know.
For him night waves her sable wings
O'er many a nameless woe.

How often, face to face with death,
In stern suspense he stood,
While bird and insect held their breath
Within the ambush of wood!
Again he sees the silent hills,
With danger's menace grim,
And darkly all the shuddering rills
Run red with blood for him.

For him the cruel sun of noon
Glazes on a blistering plain;
For him the cold, disad moon
Lights meadows rough with slain;
There's death in every sight he sees,
In every sound he hears;
And sunset hush and evening breeze
Are sad with prisoned tears.

Again worn out in fevered march,
He sinks beneath the track;
Again, beneath night's lonely arch,
His dreams of home come back;
In morning wind the roses shake
Around his cottage door,
And little feet of children make
Their music on the floor.

The tones that nevermore on earth
Can bid his pulses leap
Ring out again in careless mirth
Above the vale of sleep;
And where in forest's splendid roll
The waves of victory's tide,
His chosen comrades of his soul
Are glorious at his side!

A Protesting Protestant
From Liverpool Post.
Here is one out of the Echo: The Swedish drill-instructor was putting the man through it, and while the younger one seemed to get on all right one or two of the older men looked a bit put out. But last one man, who had been younger in his day, told the instructor that he was too old for that sort of practice. "But how old are you?" "Forty-two," replied the instructor. "The Romans used to do this sort of exercise at the age of sixty." "Perhaps they did," said the perspiring private, "but I'm not a Roman; I'm a Wesleyan!"

Molybdenum a Treasure
From Christian Science Monitor.
The more one learns about molybdenum the more one feels that Canada, which is the principal source of this metal, has in it a product quite as valuable as nickel, if not more so. Molybdenum is now used as a substitute for tungsten or vanadium in hardening steels for which purposes its use is far more economical. It lengthens greatly the durability of gun metal and armor plate. It is valuable in high explosives, and it has other uses in war. But this is not all. It takes the place of platinum in the compounding of chemicals used for dyes, while it has also been found effective as support of the incandescent electric lamps. Its possibilities, however, are only beginning to make themselves known.

A Slice of Bread
From Cleveland Press.
I am a slice of bread.
I measure three inches by two and a half, and my thickness is half an inch.
My weight is exactly an ounce.
I am wasted once a day by millions of people of the United States, and I am the "bit left over," the slice eaten absent-mindedly when really I wasn't needed; I am the waste crust, if you collected me and my companions for a whole week you would find that we amounted to thousands of tons of good bread—wasted.

When you throw me away or waste me you are adding just so many submarines to the German navy.
Stop it!
Stop fighting for the enemy by wasting me!

W. M. Hughes's Vindication
From The Scotsman.
Australia will be assured of a stable and loyal government. Such a result will be ample compensation to the Prime Minister for the personal sacrifice he was compelled to make in having to forgo attendance at the Imperial War Conference. His presence at the deliberations of these assemblies would have been unquestionably of great value. But he was serving Australia and the Empire equally well by staying at home and fighting his former political associates on an Imperial "win-the-war" program. The success of the Coalition is proof that the conscription referendum did not mean any weakening in the will of Australia to fight the war to a finish. Consistencies which voted against conscription have now voted for Mr. Hughes and his National Liberal party—in other words they have voted for the vigorous and relentless prosecution of the war. The General Election—in which it is interesting to note soldiers, sailors, nurses, and others on active service were consulted—has made it certain that Australia's part in the last stage of the war will be as glorious as her record at Gallipoli.

And the Band Played On!
From London Daily News.
Mr. Lloyd George joined heartily in the singing of "My Country, 'Tis of Thee" at the luncheon of the American Luncheon Club. It was not difficult for him to do so, for the tune is that of our own National Anthem. It is also that of the Prussian national anthem, and this fact was responsible for a laughable contretemps at Potsdam some years before the war broke out. Sir Frank Lascelles, then British Ambassador to Germany, was invited to lunch with the Kaiser at the palace on King Edward's birthday in 1904, and His Majesty gave orders that when his guest left the band was to play "God Save the King" so long as His Excellency's carriage remained in sight. But the Ambassador, thinking the band was greeting the Kaiser with "Heil dir im Siegerkranz," stood up in his carriage and told the coachman not to start until the band stopped. The bandmen, faithful to their orders, continued to play, and the familiar tune was played several times over before the Kaiser, grasping the situation, stopped the music. Whereupon Sir Frank Lascelles sat down, and the carriage proceeded to the station.

Coalition Plan Breaks Down; Laurier Cannot Accept Terms; Correspondence Is Given Out

Premier's Proposals Included Parliament be Dissolved and Coalition Seek Mandate, After Passing, But Before Enforcement of Military Service Bill — Liberal Leader Says, When Conscription Adopted by People, He Would Urge Obedience to Law.

Ottawa, June 7.—The following correspondence between Sir Robert Borden and Sir Wilfrid Laurier explains the failure of the negotiations for a coalition government was given out this morning by arrangement between the two party leaders:

Ottawa, Ont., June 7.
"To Dear Sir Robert Borden:
"On the 28th of May you asked me to meet you on the following day, which I did. I explained fully the conditions of the war in the light of knowledge acquired during your recent visit to Great Britain, you stated the reasons which had led you to the conclusion that compulsory service was necessary, and you explained to me the provisions of the military service bill.

"You then proposed the formation of a coalition government upon the basis that, outside of the prime minister, each of the two political parties should have an equal representation in the cabinet and you emphasized the importance of avoiding, if possible, an election during the war.

"I told you at once that if my cooperation was desired, I regretted that I had not been invited before you had announced a policy of compulsory service, as I dreaded very serious difficulties if a conscription law was passed by the present parliament. You rejoined that you had thought it preferable to invite me after the policy had been enunciated rather than before.

Premier's Proposals.
"At an interview which took place on Tuesday, the 29th of May, you suggested to me that you thought it necessary to hold a caucus of your supporters, but desired to consult me before doing so. I suggested to you that I had not been invited before you had announced a policy of compulsory service, as I dreaded very serious difficulties if a conscription law was passed by the present parliament. You rejoined that you had thought it preferable to invite me after the policy had been enunciated rather than before.

"I agree that it was the policy of compulsory service which, in your judgment, made it impossible for you to join a coalition government. I was convinced that compulsory service was necessary and must be included in the policy of the proposed coalition. You, on the other hand, decided that you could not accept such a policy, and that you could not join a government which adopted it.

The Daily Express says the registration of 10,000,000 American is perhaps the most heartening event that has happened in three years.

Adventures of Uncle Wiggily

By Howard R. Gault

Uncle Wiggily and the Queer Perfume

Copyright, 1917, by McClure Newspaper Syndicate.

Uncle Wiggily Longears, the rabbit soldier gentleman, was hopping along over the fields and through the woods one day, lightly and blithely swinging his red, white and blue-striped barber pole pneumatic crutch that Nurse Jane Fuzzy Wuzzy, his muskrat lady housekeeper, had gnawed for him out of cornstalk, when he suddenly stopped as he heard a sad voice say:

"Oh, dear! What trouble I am in!"

"Hail, that sounds like old times," exclaimed Uncle Wiggily. "I have not had a chance to help very many of my animal friends since I became a soldier—I have been so busy fighting the mosquitoes. But now, it seems, some one needs me. I wonder who it is?"

"It is I, if you please," went on the little voice.

"And who are you?" Uncle Wiggily wanted to know.

"I am the lady bug," was the answer, "and one of my feet is caught in a crack in this rail fence. I wish you would help me out."

"I will," said Uncle Wiggily, and he did.

"Thank you, kindly," spoke the lady bug very politely. "You did me a great favor, and I would like to do one for you."

"Pray do not mention it," spoke the bunny uncle, different-like old times. "I am a soldier, and I am not very large," spoke the lady bug. "But how comes it, Uncle Wiggily, that you are not on guard in front of your soldier tent? I thought you never left it since the mosquito war started."

"I am off for the afternoon," said the bunny. "Sammy Little Tail, my rabbit nephew, is getting to be quite a bunny boy now, and he is almost as large as I am. So I dressed him up in my tall silk hat (an old one I had) put my fur overcoat on him, with my trench boots, and so, with my talcum powder gun on his shoulder, he looked almost like me. The mosquitoes will think I am on guard and will not try to blow up my trench or capture me tent."

"Then you are out looking for adventures?" asked the lady bug.

"I am," said Uncle Wiggily. "And thanks to having helped you, I have had one. And that reminds me, I said, suddenly, 'Nurse Jane Fuzzy Wuzzy, my muskrat lady housekeeper, asked me to bring her a bottle of perfume. As she is going to a party at the home of Mr. Wibblewobble, the duck lady, tonight. But I forgot all about the sweet-smelling stuff. I shall have to go back to the drug store for it, and I hardly will have time, for I promised to be back early and let Sammy Little Tail go play marbles with Johnnie Bushytail, the squirrel. Oh, dear!'"

"Don't worry," said the lady bug. "I can get you some perfume from the woods that will be as nice as any you could get Nurse Jane in a drug store."

"And will you do it?" asked the bunny.

"I will, indeed, because you helped me."

With that the lady bug flew away home, not because her house was on fire, but because she wanted to help Uncle Wiggily, and soon she came back with a bottle almost as large as herself, but quite small at that.

"This perfume is very strong," she said, "and all Nurse Jane will have to use will be a drop as large as the smallest tear of a tiny gnat or hummingbird."

"That is very little," said Uncle Wiggily. "I'm sure Nurse Jane will like it. Thank you!"

Then Uncle Wiggily hopped back on his way to his soldier tent, and the trench near his hollow stump bungalow, where he kept guard against the mosquitoes who were at war with him. Uncle Wiggily put the tiny bottle of perfume in his pocket, and, pulling his tall silk hat down lightly over his eyes, he hurried on guard to do long since the rabbit boy had said he wanted to have some fun.

But the bunny rabbit man had come farther than he knew, and afternoon was almost over when he was still a long way from his bungalow.

"I know what I'll do," said Uncle Wiggily. "I'll take a short cut through the mosquito swamp. It is daylight yet, and I don't believe any of the bad bugs will be flying about to bite me. I'll take a chance."

So he took a short cut across the swamp, but when he had hopped nearly through it, leaping from one clump of grass to another, all of a sudden one swarmed the bad buzzing mosquitoes.

"Hail! Now we have him! Now we can get Uncle Wiggily! He has no gun with him!" they cried.

Right at him they flew, some getting ready to bite him on his ears others on his legs and still others on his pick, twinkling nose.

"Oh, dear!" cried Uncle Wiggily, slapping his paws about, as you do your hands when you're in a cloud of mosquitoes. And, all of a sudden, as he slapped, Uncle Wiggily hit the bottle of perfume in his pocket, and the glass broke!

All at once a strange smell filled the air. The mosquitoes sniffed it and cried:

"Oh, we must run away, quickly! Oh, we can not stand that smell! It will give us the episodic!"

"Hail! Of course it will!" cried Uncle Wiggily. "For that perfume is pennyroyal, and no mosquito can stand that any more than he can the smell of citronella. I'm glad the lady bug gave me this kind of perfume for Nurse Jane."

Then Uncle Wiggily sprinkled more of it around, driving off the last of the mosquitoes, who were almost choked by it. But the pennyroyal smell did not bother Uncle Wiggily at all. He used up all the lady bug had given him, but she brought more so Nurse Jane could go to the party, and everything came out all right, you see.

So the mosquitoes didn't get the bunny uncle that time, and Sammy had fun playing marbles. And if the rain drop doesn't fall down stairs and splash all over the June bug's new dress I'll tell you next about Uncle Wiggily and the tin can.

U.S. TRANSPORT TAKES WHEAT TO FRANCE FOR MEN

Crosses Atlantic Under Protection of American Warship—Preparing For Troops

Paris, June 7.—A large American transport containing wheat for American troops which are to come later has crossed the Atlantic under the protection of an American warship, the Matin announces. The transport, now being unloaded at a French port, the newspaper says.

Preparations are being made for the reception of American troops, this newspaper says further. A number of bases are being established for the British army have been organized.

Washington, June 7.—The naval collector Jupiter has arrived in France, Secretary Daniels announced today. Laden with 10,000 tons of wheat and other supplies. KRONSTADT AFFAIR IS NOW CLOSED

Soldiers' and Workmen's Delegates Recognize Authority of Government

Petrograd, via London, June 7.—The Kronstadt incident is closed. The local committee of soldiers' and workmen's delegates has recognized the authority of the provisional government.

The local committee of the workmen's and soldiers' delegates at Kronstadt decided on June 1 to assume control of the great fortress and to refuse recognition of the provisional government. The action was put forward a program of splitting Russia into a great number of self-governed communities and sent missionaries out to try to persuade neighboring towns to join them. The Socialist ministers in the provisional cabinet, Tseretli and Skobelev, went to Kronstadt and endeavored to persuade the seceders to abandon their plans. The present surrender is apparently a result of their arguments.

SAYS INDEMNITY OFFERED BY HUNS

Dr. Newell Dwight Hillis Declares Germany Planned Collecting This From States

Denver, Colo., June 7.—That Germany recently had offered the entire allies an indemnity of $30,000,000,000 to end the war and had planned to collect this in turn from the United States, was told to a Denver audience last night by Dr. Newell Dwight Hillis, speaking in the interest of the Liberty Loan.

"Not long ago a tentative offer was made to the allies to end the war by Germany paying an indemnity of $30,000,000,000," he said, "Germany to retain her army and navy and have the freedom of the seas."

"Back of this proposed plan was a purpose to send the German army and navy to the United States and collect this vast indemnity from this country."

The allies had refused this, Dr. Hillis declared, thereby preventing "the conquering of this country."
